

Annex A to Rectoral Decree No. of

Doctoral Program in LAW AND BUSINESS

Cycle XXXIX – 2023/2024 Academic Year

Administrative Headquarters: Department of Law, Luiss Guido Carli University

Statutory Duration of the Program: 3 years

a) Educational Goals and Research Themes:

The educational goal of the Doctoral Program is to offer an advanced course of study that combines both theoretical and practical aspects of the legal and regulatory issues concerning markets and business from a national, EU, international and comparative perspective, focused on both the analysis of theoretical models and on the resolution of practical cases.

The Doctoral Program is interdisciplinary in nature and concerns the following scientific-disciplinary sectors:

- IUS/17 - Criminal Law
- IUS/01 - Private Law
- IUS/02 - Comparative Private Law
- IUS/04 - Commercial Law
- IUS/05 - Economic Law
- IUS/07 - Labor Law
- IUS/08 - Constitutional Law
- IUS/09 - Principles of Private Law
- IUS/10 - Administrative Law
- IUS/12 - Tax Law
- IUS/13 - International Law
- IUS/14 - EU Law
- IUS/15 - Civil Procedure Law
- IUS/16 - Criminal Procedure Law
- IUS/20 - Philosophy of Law
- IUS/21 - Comparative Public Law

The program, specifically designed to meet the demand for highly qualified professionals, seeks to ensure that the doctoral students will reach an appreciable level of scientific and research autonomy allied to a strong capacity for criticism and analysis. Doctoral students should thus be able to investigate and examine in depth, in an interdisciplinary manner, the theoretical and empirical research themes covered by the program.

b) Places on offer:

➤ Places with University scholarships: n. 6

Candidates applying for this scholarship position are required to present, in terms of validity, a Research Project regarding the following theme: "The relationship between business and sustainable development in relation to the UN 2030 Agenda and the EU Green Deal." The research project must relate to one or more of the scientific-disciplinary areas listed in section a) of this form and must be congruent with the educational objectives and subjects covered by the PhD program.

- Total places on offer: n. 12

It is possible to apply for one or more of the above categories of competitive positions, subject to meeting the mandatory and specific requirements for each category.

c) Selection Process:

The selection process for admission to the Doctoral Program consists of three phases:

1. First Phase: Evaluation of CV, qualifications and publications

This phase will take into account all qualifications, publications (if any) and further relevant elements indicated in a candidate's CV.

Publications will be evaluated taking into account the academic value of the writings, their relevance to the topics under study in the Doctoral Program and the standing of the journals and publishing houses through which the candidates have published.

Please note that it is possible to apply for the Doctoral Program even in the absence of publications.

Candidates who score at least 24 points in the first phase will be admitted to the second phase, i.e. the evaluation of the Research Proposal. Reference should be made to section d) of this sheet for more details on the evaluation criteria.

2. Second Phase: Evaluation of the Research Proposal.

This phase evaluates the Research Proposal submitted by the candidates. In accordance with the type of position for which you are competing, it is hereby specified that the Research Project will be evaluated on the basis of the following parameters:

- Consistency (applies to those competing for the subject-bound position): the commission will evaluate whether the project is consistent with the constrained research theme proposed by this call for applications: "The relationship between business and sustainable development in relation to the UN 2030 Agenda and the EU Green Deal."
- Relevance: the proposal addresses an issue that is highly topical and/or important;
- Novelty: the proposal addresses a topic that has not yet been thoroughly analyzed in doctrinal literature and/or proposes to deal with the topic from an innovative perspective;
- Comparative/international dimension: the proposal intends to examine the legal systems of other countries and/or to examine the chosen topic also from the perspective of the international and/or EU legal system;
- Interdisciplinarity: the proposal exhibits an interdisciplinary profile regarding one or more areas under study in the Doctoral Program;
- Structure: the proposal is well structured and logically reasoned while also being well written and laid out from a formal standpoint.

Candidates who score at least 12 points in the second phase will be admitted to the third phase, i.e. Oral Exam and English language test.

3. Third Phase: Oral Exam and English language test

The Oral Exam will focus on the Research Proposal submitted and will concern topics and subjects pertinent thereto (even if not directly covered by the Research Proposal itself but which relate to the areas under study in the Doctoral Program).

It is designed to assess not only the candidate's depth of knowledge regarding the proposal submitted but also the candidate's ability to engage in legal reasoning and discuss concepts relating to various branches of the legal system. Testing of the English language will consist of reading a text in English and translating it into Italian.

Candidates who are applying for a scholarship position reserved for International candidates must exhibit an adequate knowledge of Italian during the Oral Exam.

The oral exam may be held in presence or through the WebEx online platform.

The Oral Exam may be held online on the Webex platform. Candidates must possess a computer (with a webcam and microphone) and internet access and follow the instructions relating to the use of the Webex application which they will receive by email at the address that has been submitted during the candidacy phase.

The Oral Exam will be deemed to have been passed by candidates who obtain at least 24 points; 10 of the 40 points will be reserved for the evaluation of the candidate's knowledge of the English language.

d) Admissions Commission Scoring

The scoring system utilized by the Commission is as follows (minimum score for eligibility 60):

Competition Phase	Subject matter of evaluation	Maximum Score	Minimum score to pass to next phase
Phase 1	CV, qualifications and publications	40	24
Phase 2	Research Project	20	12
Phase 3	Oral Exam and English language evaluation	40	24

	(in presence or via Webex)
Totale		100	60

The minimum score for eligibility (60 points) is to be understood as the sum of the points assigned from the three phases, with the candidate having attained at least the minimum score in all of the selection phases.

e) Method of Submission of Candidature:

The online application procedure is to be completed through accessing the University's website at:

<https://phd.luiss.it/diritto-impresa/calls/open-calls/>

To submit an application to participate in the competition candidates must:
