DECREES AS FOLLOWS

ART.1 – ESTABLISHMENT

The research doctoral program in Law and Business, set out in the Annex A and Technical Sheet B and C annexed hereto, which are an integral part hereof, is hereby established at Luiss Guido Carli for the 2024/2025 academic year, XL cycle, and likewise the specific competitions for admission thereto for the n. 2 scholarships referred to in the M.D. 630 of 24 April 2024 in the context of NRRP, financed by the EU (Next Generation EU), M4 C2 I3.3, for the development of research projects related to the following binding research themes:

- “The management of European funds and projects (funded by EU cohesion policies and Horizon Europe program) for a just technological, energy and ecological transition through multifactor partnership forms such as energy communities.”
- “Sustainable innovation as a cornerstone of new paradigms of development and international cooperation in EU (i.e. AU-EU Innovation Agenda) and Italian (i.e. Mattei Plan) policies”.

Said doctoral scholarships are activated in respect to the admission criteria referred to in the art. 7 of the M.D. 630/2024.

Doctoral paths funded in the context of the D.M. 630/2024 must start by 13 December 2024, following a positive admission verifications and coherence in order to assign the ministerial findings, which will be activated by 6 December 2024, and which will determine the effective initiation of the above-mentioned position. Therefore, the actual activation of the above doctoral position is subject to the actual confirmation of allocation of ministerial funding under DM 630/2024.

The specific sheet for the program (see Annex A and Technical Sheet B and C) sets out the educational goals, research themes, the method, and criteria for selecting candidates for the purposes of establishing a ranking order for admission.

The above-mentioned sheets also indicate the number of places on offer, with scholarships, which will be awarded on the basis of the ranking order and the scholarships.

Pursuant to MUR Decree No. 226/2021, the Doctoral Course will be activated only upon the favorable opinion expressed by ANVUR on the maintenance of ministerial accreditation requirements. Therefore, the places and scholarships advertised will be awarded only in case of a positive outcome of this evaluation.

Any additions or changes to what is set out herein and, in the Annexes provided will be published on the University's website <http://www.luiss.it>.

ART. 2 - ELIGIBILITY

Applications to participate in the competition for admission to the doctoral program referred to in article 1 may be submitted by individuals holding all the mandatory requirements cited in the relevant specific Annex A hereto and a master's degree, a specialized degree or an Italian master's degree under the former university system or an analogous academic qualification awarded abroad that is officially recognized in advance by the academic authorities if not already deemed to be officially equivalent. In order to obtain such recognition, a candidate who holds an academic qualification awarded abroad which is not already deemed to be officially equivalent must accompany his or her application with whatever documents are necessary to enable the Admissions Commission – consistent with the rules in force in Italy and the country where the qualification was granted and the international treaties or agreements governing the recognition of qualifications for further education purposes – to assess the qualification solely for doctoral program eligibility purposes. The qualifications must therefore be accompanied by all the documentation specified in article 3 that is necessary for their assessment.

Candidates already possessing a PhD degree received in Italy or those who have already benefited from a doctoral scholarship in Italy may not benefit from this scholarship.

This Call for Applications does not involve attribution of places without scholarship.

Pursuant to the provisions of Article 11 of Ministerial Decree 630/2024, doctoral fellowships may not be awarded to doctoral students who have relinquished NRRP fellowships under the XXXVIII cycle and XXXIX cycle.

In accordance with the Ministry of Education, Universities and Research. To not cause hypothesis of State assistance, the employees of enterprises may not be awarded these scholarships.

It is further specified that all candidates who submit self-certification under Presidential Decree No. 445 of 28 December 2000 will be admitted to participate in the competition subject to verification of the self-certified statements and that the University may at any time during the process, including after commencement of the doctoral program, check the veracity of the statements submitted.

In the event of a false statement, the University may order – by a reasoned decision of the Rector – that the candidate be removed from the competition or the doctoral program without prejudice to ensuing criminal implications for the candidate.

ART. 3 – ADMISSION APPLICATIONS

All applications for admission must be submitted exclusively online by the deadline set out in this call for application and cited in the relevant specific Annex A hereto.

Candidates are responsible for all information that is inserted into their online form and the validity of the certification/self-certification submitted. In that regard, candidates are obliged to consult the University's Code of Ethics, with particular regard for points C.1.1. and C.1.2. The Code can be found at the following link

https://www.luiss.it/sites/all/Codice_Etico_Luiss_CdA_21_aprile_2020_.pdf

The University reserves the right to check the information and validity of the documents submitted. In the event of a discrepancy in what has been declared, it may exclude the candidate at any time, during or after the competition.

The online procedure should be completed by accessing the University's website at the address specified in the relevant specific Annex.

Once the procedure for submitting the application has been completed, the candidate will receive a print-out thereof as proof of successful completion of the procedure.

The application is to be considered for all statutory purposes a self-certification of the candidate's declared personal details and qualifications.

Each candidate may apply for admission to more than one doctoral program.

Candidates are expected to submit a proof of possession of a master's degree, a specialized degree or Italian master's degree under the former university system or an analogous academic qualification awarded abroad, along with all the documents required in the relevant specific annexes hereto.

In this regard, it should be noted that:

Candidates with a qualification awarded in ITALY must submit:

- Certification/self-certification of the degree held, setting out the exams undertaken, the associated grade awarded and credits earned, the grade point average and the degree grade (for each degree, if more than one degree held);

Candidates with a qualification awarded in an EU country must submit the following:

1. Certification/self-certification of the of the degree held, setting out the exams undertaken, the associated grade awarded and credits earned (transcript of records), the grade point average and the degree grade (for each degree if more than one degree held);
2. degree parchment in its original language;
3. diploma supplement in its original language;
4. translation into Italian or English of the above-mentioned documents indicated in the preceding points 1, 2 and 3: translations are not required if the documents in question are issued by the institution directly in English.

Candidates with a qualification awarded in a non-EU country must submit the following:

- A. degree parchment in its original language;
- B. transcript of records in its original language;
- C. translation into Italian or English of the two documents indicated in the preceding points A and B: translations are not required if the documents in question are issued by the institution directly in English.

In the case of admission, applicants holding foreign degrees are required to submit to the PhD & Education Funding Office either the Diploma Supplement (the "access to further studies" section must necessarily be complete) or an Attestation of Comparability of the foreign degree issued by CIMEA. The Certificate of Comparability can be found at the following link: <https://www.cimea.it/>.

Luiss reserves the right to check all documentation submitted by candidates. Should the qualification exhibited not fulfill the requirements set forth in this call for applications and not permit enrolment in the doctoral program, candidates who have made false statements shall be excluded from the program with an obligation to refund any improperly received scholarship installments, without prejudice to any criminal implications that may arise.

The deadline for applications is 16:00 CEST (UTC+2) on 11 July 2024.

ART. 4 – ADMISSION EXAM

Admission is based on what is indicated in the Annex A hereto.

Candidates will be summoned to the written or/and oral exams by e-mail sent to the e-mail address specified in the application form for the competition filled out online. Notice of the exam will also be given (at least 7 days prior to the date that the exam is scheduled for) on Luiss Guido Carli's website at <http://www.luiss.it>.

In order to take the exam, candidates will be identified through a valid ID document.

ART. 5 – COMPARATIVE EVALUATION, THE ADMISSIONS COMMISSION AND ITS DUTIES

Comparative evaluation for admission to the program is based on what is set out in the Annex A hereto.

The Admissions Commission that comparatively evaluates the candidates for the doctoral program is appointed by decree of the Rector of Luiss Guido Carli, subject to consultation with the Academic Board (Collegio dei Docenti) and consists of at least three members. Such members will either be professors or acknowledged experts in the subject and may be citizens of another country. In any event, the number of professors must exceed the number of experts on the Admissions Commission.

Once the competition exam has been completed, the Admissions Commission ranks the candidates based on the sum of the points awarded to each one.

In the event of a tie between candidates as regards their overall score, the following select criteria shall be used to establish the ranking order for admission and scholarship purposes:

- a) in the event of a tie, the points awarded to Phase One of the selective process (please consult the annex to the present Call for Applications)
- b) in the event of a further tie, the points awarded in connection with the oral exam (please consult the annex to the present Call for Applications)
- c) in the event of a further tie, the points awarded for the Research Proposal.

Notice of admission to the doctoral program will be given by e-mail (to the address stated in the application form) no later than the date specified in the relevant Annex hereto, by which date the ranking order and list of those admitted will also be published on the Luiss website at <http://www.luiss.it>.

ART. 6 – ADMISSION TO THE PROGRAMS

Candidates will be admitted to the doctoral programs in ranking order until all places on offer are filled.

The evaluation commission will proceed to assign the two binding research projects, object of this Call, to the two selected candidates.

Should one of the successful candidates decline the place or not accept it in time, pursuant to art. n° 7 of this Call, that place will be awarded to the highest-ranking eligible candidate from among those not originally admitted.

ART. 7 – ENOLMENT APPLICATION

By the peremptory deadline of 7 days, counting from the day after publication of the ranking on the University's website (<http://www.luiss.it>) and the concurrent notice of admission sent to the candidate by email, admitted candidates must communicate by e-mail (dottorati@luiss.it) their intention to enroll in the doctoral program, failing which they will be excluded.

Moreover, by the deadline that will be communicated in the notice of admission, admitted candidates must also submit or send by post (the postmark will serve as proof) an application for enrolment in the doctoral program (using the form for such purposes that will be e-mailed to them) and associated attachments, to the PhD & Education Funding, Luiss Guido Carli, Viale Romania 32, 00197 Rome, failing which they will be excluded.

Should any successful candidates expressly or impliedly forgo admission, their place shall be awarded to the highest-ranking eligible candidates.

With reference to what is stated in this article, during enrolment in the Doctoral Program timely notice must be given of any change in what was declared at the time of submission of the enrolment application.

ART. 8 – NUMBER OF PLACES ON OFFER AND SCHOLARSHIPS

The places on offer for each doctoral program are those indicated in the corresponding Annexes hereto.

Details of any other scholarships, including as a result of renouncement of the scholarship by candidates admitted to the programs, will be communicated in a timely manner.

Scholarships shall be initially awarded for one year and will be yearly renewed on condition that the candidate has completed the schedule of activities envisaged for the previous year as checked in accordance with the procedures laid down for each Doctoral Program.

The annual amount of each scholarship (see Annex A letter b) point 1), for each candidate, to be disbursed in monthly installments, is determined in accordance with Ministerial Decree of 18 June 2008 and subsequent amendments. Starting from the 1st of July 2022 the amount of each scholarship is set by Ministerial Decree n. 247 of 23 February 2022 and is worth € 16,243 subject to payment by recipients of their own share of the relevant social security contributions due.

The amount of the scholarship shall be increased by a maximum of 50% for a total period not exceeding 12 months if the doctoral student is authorized by the Academic Board to conduct research abroad; an amount equal to 50% of a scholarship may also be used by those who do not hold a scholarship if authorized by the Academic Board to conduct research abroad for a total period not exceeding 12 months. This period may be extended to a period not exceeding 18 months for doctoral students with a co-tutela agreement with foreign entities. That increase may not be used for periods shorter than one continuous month, or in the doctoral student's country of birth, citizenship, residence, or domicile.

Commencing from the first year, each doctoral student shall be guaranteed, in addition to the scholarship and within the context of the University's existing financial resources, a budget for research in Italy and abroad that is adequate for the type of program and that in any event is not less than 10% of the amount of the scholarship.

Winners with a scholarship must join the 'INPS Gestione Separata' State-run pension fund and send an e-mail to Luiss (dottorati@luiss.it) providing evidence of their registration in that regard. Scholarships are subject to social security contributions payable to the said pension fund in accordance with applicable law, two thirds of which is borne by the University and one third by the scholarship holders.

Doctoral students enjoy the associated benefits and rights.

Please note:

- To be eligible for the scholarship, admitted applicants may not have previously received other doctoral scholarships (Law n. 398 of 30 November 1989 and subsequent amendments);
- in accordance with the provisions of Article 11 of Ministerial Decree 630/2024, doctoral fellowships may not be awarded to doctoral students who have relinquished PNRR fellowships under the XXXVIII cycle and XXXIX cycle;
- Scholarships awarded for doctoral program are not cumulable with other scholarships of any type, including those awarded by other universities/bodies;
- Scholarships are incompatible with a role as an employee, or any research and study contributions awarded by Luiss Guido Carli departments or other institutions.

ART. 9 – RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF DOCTORAL STUDENTS

Admission to a Doctoral Program entails an exclusive and full-time commitment in line with what is specified in the syllabus for the Doctoral Program concerned, without prejudice to the dispositions referred to in the paragraph 4 and art. 8 paragraph 2, letter b) of the Research Doctorate regulations of Luiss Guido Carli.

Enrolled students must attend doctoral courses and activities and continuously undertake study and research within the context of the facilities intended for such purposes and in the manner established by the Academic Board.

The Academic Board may authorize a doctoral student to conduct remunerated activities which enable the achievement of competencies within the educational field of the doctoral program, upon evaluation of the compatibility of the said activity with the productive progress of the educational and research activities under the doctoral program. The annual maximal limit perceivable by the doctoral candidate compliant to the scholarship, cannot surpass the ministerial minimal amount of the scholarship thereto.

The doctoral students may undertake, as an integral part of their educational program, tutoring activities of those studying for the bachelor's and master's degrees, even remunerated, and also additional teaching activities up to forty hours per academic year, subject to the approval by the Academic Board, without such entailing an increase of their scholarship. For these activities the doctoral students receive cheques referred to in the art. 1, paragraph 1, letter b), of the decree law of 9 May 2003, n. 105, converted, with subsequent amendments, by the law n. 107 of 11 July 2003. At the end of every year of study each student enrolled in the doctoral program must submit a detailed report to the Academic Board on the work and research done. The Academic Board will keep the report and, subject to a positive evaluation of the efforts and work of the doctoral student, will propose to the Rector that the student be allowed to continue his or her studies. In the event of a negative evaluation, the recommendation will be that the studies of the doctoral student should cease.

Doctoral students may be suspended or expelled from the program further to a unanimous decision of the Academic Board stating the reasons for such a decision.

For public sector employees admitted to doctoral programs the provisions of article 10, paragraph 5, of the Research Doctorate Regulations of Luiss Guido Carli apply.

The measures under Legislative Decree No. 68 of 29 March 2012 are extended to doctoral students in the manner provided for therein.

Without prejudice to the norms and protection of parenthood rights referred to in the decree of Ministry of Labor and Social Welfare Decree of 12 July 2007 published in Official Gazette No. 247 of 23 October 2007, the doctoral students in family leave maintain the right to the scholarship. After the suspension period, the scholarship will be paid upon the course attendance is resumed up to the completion of the overall duration of the scholarship period.

In addition to the obligations set out for doctoral students under the regulations of Luiss Guido Carli on Doctoral Research Programs, as for M.D. 630/2024, at the moment of enrolment to the doctoral program, doctoral students agree to the following obligations, failing which will result in exclusion and request to return received scholarship funds:

- a) conduct the doctoral research in conformity with the research project admitted to funding, unless prior request and a successive concession by necessary authorizations from MUR;
- b) deliver a semestral report, articulated by months, laying down the indication of commitments, timewise (in the enterprise, in the University and abroad, if foreseen) and a synopsis of main activities conducted, stating that they comply with the principle of “not causing significant harm to the environment”;
- c) undertake, ex MD 630/2024, research and study periods in enterprises from a min. of six (6) to a max. of twelve (12) months, as indicated in the thematically binding research projects (see Technical Sheet B and C);
- d) undertake, ex MD 630/2024, from a min. of six (6) to a max. of twelve (12) months of research and study periods abroad as indicated in the thematically binding research projects (see Technical Sheet B and C);
- e) ensure compliance with obligations regarding communication and information provided for by art. 34 of Regulation (EU) 2021/241, indicating in the project documentation that the Program is funded under the PNRR, with explicit reference to funding from the European Union and the NextGenerationEU initiative (for ex. using the phrase “funded from the European Union - NextGenerationEU”), reporting the emblem of the European Union in the project documentation and providing adequate dissemination and promotion of the Program, including online, both web and social, in line with the provisions of the NRPP Communication Strategy;
- f) ensure that the implementation of project activities is consistent with the specific principles and obligations of the NRRP with regard to the principle of “Do no significant harm” (DNSH) under Article 17 of Reg. (EU) 2020/852 and, where applicable, with the principles of digital tagging, gender equality (Gender Equality) in relation to Articles 2, 3(3) TEU, 8, 10, 19, and 157 TFEU, and 21 and 23 of the Charter of Fundamental Rights of the European Union, protection and empowerment of young people, and bridging territorial gaps;
- g) ensure compliance with the cross-cutting principles provided for the NRRP in national and EU legislation, with particular regard to the protection and enhancement of young people and overcoming territorial gaps;

It should be noted that the MUR will verify the eligibility for the NRRP support for the selected grants and projects and ANVUR, on the other hand, will verify the consistency of the research projects awarded with the requirements set out in MD 630/2024.

Once these checks have been completed, the MUR will notify the University of the definitive allocation of the due funding. Therefore, the effective activation of the positions indicated above (n. 2 positions with thematically binding scholarships) is to be considered subject to the positive verification of eligibility and consistency with the purpose of assigning the ministerial funding which will take place after 6 December 2024.

The activities of the funded doctorates, pursuant to art. 11, paragraph 10, of the M.D. 118/2023 must in any case be started by 13 December 2023.

ART. 10 – AWARDING OF THE DOCTORATE

The qualification of research doctor abbreviated as “Dott. Ric.” thus “Ph.D” is attained at the end of the doctoral program and is awarded following positive assessment of a research thesis that contributes to the advancement of knowledge or methodology in the chosen field of inquiry after defense of a doctoral thesis. The research doctorate is conferred by the Rector in accordance with the Research Doctorate Regulations of Luiss Guido Carli and applicable law.

The examinations commission for the final exam will be established and appointed by decree of the Rector in accordance with the Research Doctorate Regulations of Luiss Guido Carli and applicable law.

The doctoral student must deliver the final version of the PhD thesis along with a detailed report of the activities performed during the Doctoral Program, as indicated in art. 8 of D.M. 226 of 14 December 2021.

The PhD certificate will be issued solely if, within 30 days after defense of the thesis, the doctoral student (with the assistance of the relevant staff) files a copy of the final version of the thesis in the University's open access institutional repository, which stores the work and affords public access thereto. Upon Academic Board's authorization, certain parts of the thesis may be made unavailable with regards to data privacy protection, in accordance with the relative legislation in force. The obligation to file the thesis at the central National Libraries of Rome and Florence remains unaffected.

ART. 11 – PRIVACY NOTICE

Luiss treats the personal data of candidates in full conformance of Reg. UE/2016/679 and D.Lgs. n. 196/2003, as modified by D.Lgs. n. 101/18 and subsequent integrations.

Luiss, as Controller, collects and processes the identifying data (name, surname, place and date of birth, personal tax number and citizenship), contact data (residential address, e-mail address and telephone number), data relating to academic record, data relating to knowledge of foreign languages, data relating to any certifications held by the data subject, in order to manage the application for participation in the doctoral competition and related obligations (the legal basis for processing lies the fulfillment of the pre-contractual obligations between the parties).

Processing takes place in the European Economic Area, on paper and electronically, using the security measures required by law.

Data are processed by Luiss' administrative and teaching staff and by any third party who assists Luiss in management of the application.
