c) Selection Process:

The selection process for admission to the Doctoral Program consists of three phases:

1. First Phase: Evaluation of CV, qualifications, any GRE and publications

This phase will take into account all qualifications, GRE (if any), publications (if any) and further relevant elements indicated in a candidate's CV.

Publications will be evaluated taking into account the academic value of the writings, their relevance to the topics under study in the Doctoral Program and the standing of the journals and publishing houses through which the candidates have published.

Please note that it is possible to apply for the Doctoral Program even in the absence of publications.

Candidates who score at least 24 points in the first phase will be admitted to the second phase, i.e. the evaluation of the Research Proposal. Reference should be made to section d) of this sheet for more details on the evaluation criteria.

2. Second Phase - Evaluation of the Research Proposal

This phase involves the evaluation of the Research Proposal submitted by the candidate.

The Research Proposal will be evaluated by assessing its pertinence to the areas under study in the Doctoral program. It should be written in English and explicitly contain: the specific field of research, the objectives and motivations for the research, the background of the research, the state of the art on the subject, with references to the literature, the proposed methodology, related hypotheses and theories, a description of the eventual empirical component, a list of sources and a brief bibliography.

The Research Proposal should also contain, before or after the title, explicit indication of the primary area of research, to be selected from the list provided on page 1, letter a) of this document (Macroeconomics, Microeconomics, Econometrics, Monetary and Fiscal Policy Analysis, Financial Markets And Regulation, Industrial Economics And Competition, Individual Choice Within The Contexts Of Uncertainty And Behavioral Economics, Economic Cycle And Growth Models).

Candidates who have obtained at least 12 points in the second phase will be admitted to the third phase, i.e. The Oral Exam.

3. Third Phase - Oral Exam in English

The Oral Exam will focus on the Research Proposal submitted and will concern topics and subjects pertinent thereto (even if not directly covered by the Research Proposal itself but which relate to the areas under study in the Doctoral Program). It is designed to assess not only the candidate's depth of knowledge regarding the proposal submitted but also the candidate's ability to engage in reasoning and discuss concepts relating to various branches of the system.

The Oral Exam will be conducted in English in view of the fact that the Doctoral Program will be taught entirely in that language.

The Oral Exam will be held online on the Webex platform. Candidates must possess a computer with a webcam and microphone and internet access and follow the instructions relating to the use of the Webex application which they will receive by email at the address that has been submitted during the candidacy phase.

The Oral Exam will be deemed to have been passed by candidates who obtain at least 24 points.
