

Annex A to Rectoral Decree n. 290 of 23.12.2022

PhD Program in POLITICS
Cycle XXXIX - A.Y. 2023/2024

Administrative headquarters: Department of Political Science, Luiss University Statutory Duration of the Program: 4 years

a) Educational Goals and Research Themes:

The Department of Political Science at Luiss University invites applications for 5 fully funded PhD scholarships to commence PhD studies in the academic year 2023/2024. The PhD program is entirely in English and has a duration of four years. Supervision will be mainly provided by Professors members of the Academic Board. The program also facilitates exchanges with partner universities abroad and provides additional financial support to enable such study periods and field work.

The Department of Political Science provides excellence in a number research clusters and we invite research proposals specifically in these areas:

- Regional and global governance
- European integration
- Communication studies
- Parliaments, elections and political representation
- Politics and Institutions
- Public policy

b) Places on offer:

- Number of places with ordinary scholarship: n. 4
- Number of places with scholarship with increased funding, reserved for international candidates who satisfy all of the requisites listed immediately below: n. 1

- ❖ not in possession of Italian Citizenship;
- ❖ not having had residency or domicile in Italy, or having carried out their main activity in Italy, for more than 6 months, even non-consecutively, in the three years preceding this Call for Applications;
- ❖ qualification for access to a Doctoral Program obtained in a foreign university.

Should a suitable candidate not be found, this place will be added, without additional funding, to the 4 ordinary University scholarship places and will be attributed in accordance with the same merit system as for those places.

Total places on offer on the PhD Program: n. 5

c) Selection Process:

The selection process for admission to the doctoral program consists of two phases:

1. First Phase: Evaluation of the Research Proposal, CV and the qualifications contained therein.

In this phase the Research Proposal, CV and qualifications contained therein will be examined.

- (a) The Research Proposal (to be mandatory submitted) will be evaluated taking into account its academic and societal relevance, its quality, rigor and promise in terms of delivering original research findings and its relation to the expertise available in the various research clusters of the Political Science Department. It must be written in English and has to include a clear statement of the research question or issues to be addressed, the state of the art on the topic complete with references to the literature, the analytical framework and methodology proposed, an indication of the sources for data collection and a brief bibliography.
- (b) CV and qualifications (to be mandatory submitted) will be evaluated taking into account the prior qualifications and any other relevant elements indicated in a candidate's curriculum vitae.

2. Second Phase: Interview with the Selection Committee

The interview will focus on the research proposal submitted and will concern topics and subjects pertinent thereto (even if not directly covered by the Research Proposal itself but which relate to the areas under study in the Doctoral Program).

It is designed to assess not only the applicant's depth of knowledge regarding the proposal submitted but also the candidate's ability to engage in critical thinking and scientific enquiry, and to assess the candidate's motivations and objectives in entering the PhD program.

Interviews will be conducted in English, this being the working language of the PhD Program. The interview be held in presence or remotely.

d) Assessment of PhD Applications

Selection Phase	Subject matter of evaluation	Maximum Score	Minimum score to pass to next phase
Phase 1	Research Proposal	60	36
	CV and Qualifications
Phase 2	Interview	40	24
Total		100	60

The minimum score for eligibility (60 points) is to be understood as the sum of the points assigned from the three phases, with the candidate having attained at least the minimum score in both of the selection phases.
