Following the Decision by the Academic Senate of Luiss of 28 May 2009 regulating the publication of PhD Dissertations on Luiss University Open Catalogue¹

I hereby solemnly declare to be aware that:

- Luiss is mandated to make an electronic copy of my PhD Dissertation as to facilitate its storage and access by other researchers and/or academic staff; Luiss is also mandated to transfer the electronic copy of the PhD thesis to the appropriate authorities in conformance with applicable Italian law;
- Luiss internal rules require that 1 (one) non-editable Word or PDF electronic version of the final version of the PhD Dissertation should be submitted to the PhD & Summer University Office with each page clearly stating "PhD Thesis submitted by (name of the candidate) on (date of submission) and successfully discussed on (date of the discussion of the PhD Thesis) - The total or partial use of the PhD Thesis is subject to copyright restrictions";

¹In compliance with the 2003 Declaration of Berlin concerning the open access to the scientific literature,

LUISS

Guidelines for the Deposit of PhD dissertation in open archives issued by CRUI in October 2007, MIUR Decree n. 1746 issued on 20 July 2007, the Academic Senate has decided that, as of 2008, all PhD Dissertations are to be published into the Open Archives of the University. The University Library will comply with all applicable national and International laws while, at the same time, fostering their safe storage and use by the Luiss scientific community and the public as a whole".
